Design a Sign From the Colonial Days in Massachusetts

Colonial settlers of Massachusetts worked hard everyday to make a colony. The women cooked over open fires, tended to farm animals, took care of the house, looked after the children, made all the clothing and bedding. The children picked berries, fed the chickens, gathered wood, cleaned their rooms, and fetched the water. The men farmed the land, built the houses and barns, made furniture, or worked in town. When settlers worked in town they would have a shop that specialized in their trade or skill. Outside the shop would be a sign that represented their skills. For example, the miller would have a picture of grains or flour on his sign and it would say "miller".

Design your Own Logo and Name for Your Sports Team

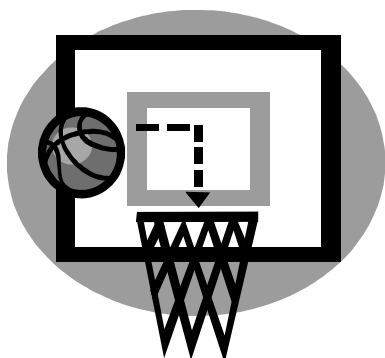

In 1891, James Naismith invented basketball. He was a PE instructor, and was asked to create an indoor sport for the students at YMCA. He experimented with dribbling soccer balls up and down a court and trying to land the ball in a peach basket on a 10-foot pole. In 1892, the rules were finalized and the game was named basketball. Metal hoops and mesh baskets were introduced in 1893. Today, it is a popular sport played by people all over the world. Don't forget to put your lucky number on the back and last name.

Coming to America Introduction

On September 6, 1620, a group of 102 people called Pilgrims, left England on a ship called the Mayflower. They were on a journey to the New World for a new beginning. The captain's name was Christopher Jones and he had 30 crew members to assist him on the long journey. This was a new task for him since usually he only carried merchandise on his ship.

The passengers had to live in small areas of the ship for 66 days. There were no bathrooms or showers and everyone got seasick from the rough weather. In the beginning of the trip, food was good, but soon there was only biscuits and dried meat. On November 11, 1620 they landed on Plymouth Rock, Massachusetts and stepped into their New World.

The weather was cold when they arrived so they had to live on the ship until they could build temporary shelters to live in. Two native Americans named Squanto and Samoset from the Wampanoag tribe helped the Pilgrims. They taught them how to hunt, harvest, and survive the winter. When the spring came they built houses out of wood. Chief Massasoit made a peace treaty with the pilgrims and they came together and had the first Thanksgiving. It was held in October 1621 for three days.

Coming to America Game

You will need a dice and game markers to move around the board.

Markers can be coins, buttons, or pieces from other games.

3-4 players needed

1. Connect the two board pieces together with tape. If you would like to color the board you may. Have the participants roll the dice and move around the board to collect item cards and answer questions about Massachusetts or the Pilgrims' arrival in America.
2. Cut out the "Item Cards" and place them on the game board box labeled "Item Cards". The item cards pertain to items that would be found in American colonial times. Make several copies of these pages so there will be enough for all the players to collect.
3. Cut out the "?" cards and place them on the game board labeled "?". Please note some of the questions will pertain to the introduction paragraphs of this game. Once they read a card then they should place it face down on the bottom of the deck.
4. Have each participant roll the dice. Whoever rolls the highest number goes first. Turn order continues in a clockwise motion.
5. If a participant lands on a symbol, then they draw an item card.
6. The object of the game is to make it to the end with four item cards. You may wish to adjust the quantity of cards to collect according to the age level of the participants.

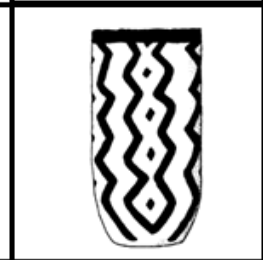

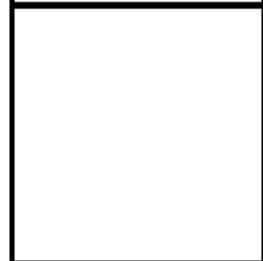

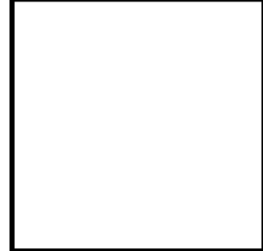

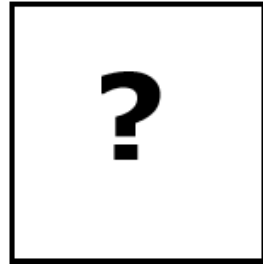

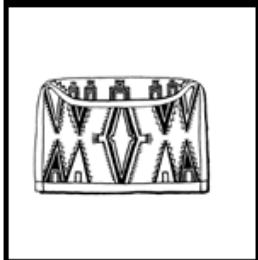

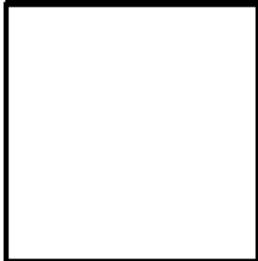

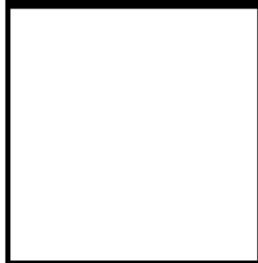

In order to receive these cards they can move forward and backwards on the game board. If they answer a question correctly they can draw an item card. Once a person has four item cards then they can travel to the "end" space and be declared the winner. If they land on a question space they still need to try and answer the questions.

Recipe

In 1930, Ruth Wakefield invented the Toll House Cookie in Whitefield, Massachusetts. During this time period in her life, she prepared desserts for the local inns. One day she was creating her Drop Do cookies and ran out of baker's semi sweet chocolate. She remembered the chocolate bar that Andrew Nestle had given her, so she substituted the chocolate with the chocolate bar. To her amazement the chocolate pieces did not melt in the oven but stayed in chip like pieces within the cookie. She served the cookie anyway and it became a hit. Ruth Wakefield spoke to Andrew Nestle of Nestlé's chocolate about producing small chocolate pieces for baking. He agreed to sell them and Ruth Wakefield would receive a lifetime supply of Nestle chocolate and her recipe printed on the back of every package of Nestle chocolate chips. To this day, her recipe is still printed on the back of the Nestle chocolate chip bags. Chocolate Chip cookies are still the most popular cookie in America. Try her recipe below and you will see for yourself how yummy her cookies really are !

Ruth Wakefield's Tollhouse Cookie Recipe

2 ¼ cups of flour
 1 teaspoon of baking soda
 1 tsp. of salt
 1 cup of butter (2 sticks)
 ¾ cup of white sugar
 ¾ cup of brown sugar
 1 teaspoon of vanilla
 2 eggs
 2 cups of Nestle sweet chocolate chips (12 oz. bag)
 1 cup of chopped nuts

Directions:

PREHEAT oven to 375° F. Should make about 40 cookies.

COMBINE flour, baking soda and salt in small bowl. Beat butter, granulated sugar, brown sugar and vanilla extract in large mixer bowl until creamy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Gradually beat in flour mixture. Stir in the chocolate chips and nuts. Drop by rounded tablespoon onto ungreased baking sheets.

BAKE for 9 to 11 minutes or until golden brown. Cool on baking sheets for 2 minutes; remove to wire racks to cool completely.

Other variations:

PAN COOKIES: Grease a 15 x 10-inch pan. Prepare dough as noted above. Spread into prepared pan. Bake for 20 to 25 minutes or until golden brown. Cool in pan on wire rack. Makes 4 dozen bars.

SLICE AND BAKE : Prepare dough as noted above. Divide in half. *Shape each half into 15-inch logs; wrap in waxed paper. Refrigerate for 30 minutes or until firm. Preheat oven to 375° F. Cut into 1/2-inch-thick slices; place on ungreased baking sheets. Bake for 8 to 10 minutes or until golden brown. Cool on baking sheets for 2 minutes; remove to wire racks to cool completely. Makes about 5 dozen cookies.
